

HEALTHCARE NURSING AND PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS

ABOUT CLINIPOST

Connecting Healthcare Systems to RN and PA Professionals

CliniPost is a medical and healthcare search firm that specializes in recruitment services within the Nursing and Physician Assistant industry. CliniPost approaches each and every assignment with a personalized approach by custom-tailoring to fit our clients' needs.

We place Physician Assistants and Nursing professionals from staff and board certified specialists to the highest managerial levels, while partnering with acute care hospitals, rehab hospitals, and long term care facilities.

CliniPost has a level of commitment and sense of urgency that each search is given, and this has created lifelong relationships with many well-known health systems nationwide. Our unique experience within the clinical and managerial levels of Physician Assistants and the nursing industry has allowed us to gain a deep understanding of the assignments we engage in. We have a proven track record for successful placements. Due to our detailed screening in finding the right fit for our clients, we consistently present candidates that not only have the required skill set but also are a fit for our clients' culture, unique features, and geographical location.

Working with CliniPost will reduce employee turnover and improve corporate productivity.
