

HEALTHCARE THERAPY

Connecting Healthcare Systems to Top Therapist Professionals

CliniPost is a medical and healthcare search firm that specializes in recruitment services within the Therapy industry. CliniPost approaches each and every assignment with a personalized approach by custom-tailoring to fit our clients' needs.

We place Therapy professionals from staff and clinical specialist to the highest managerial levels, while partnering with acute care hospitals, rehab hospitals, outpatient rehabilitation clinics, and long term care facilities.

CliniPost has a level of commitment and sense of urgency that each search is given, and this has created lifelong relationships with many well-known health systems nationwide. Our unique experience within the clinical and managerial levels of the therapy industry has allowed us to gain a deep understanding of the assignments we engage in. We have a proven track record for successful placements. Due to our detailed screening in finding the right fit for our clients, we consistently present candidates that not only have the required skill set but also are a fit for our clients' culture, unique features, and geographical location.

Working with CliniPost will reduce employee turnover and improve corporate productivity.

ABOUT CLINIPOST

Our company is founded by one of the best in the recruitment business, Patty Wyatt. When Patty entered the recruitment business in 2007, she joined the largest single site search firm in the country and achieved becoming a Managing Director and true million-dollar solo producer in record time. Through a hard work ethic and an intangible quality to match people with careers, she has annually received awards for Top 10 Performance and is consistently a Top Individual Performer. She broke every individual producer record her former employer had since their inception in 1981, and remained the highest individual producer among 25 partners.

Prior to 2007, Patty worked as an ASCP-certified Medical Technologist after earning her Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Technology from Oakland University.

Darrin Wyatt is Managing Director of CliniPost and joined in 2016. Previously he served as a Senior Associate in Tax with a Big 4 Accounting Firm. Other past credits include working as an international tax attorney for a boutique accounting firm. Darrin has worked on progressive assignments and earned experience in accounting and strategic planning. He has become an effective consultant to both candidates and hiring managers - offering personal, creative and professional advice to all parties. Darrin looks forward to advancing CliniPost, impacting the growth of the business by leveraging his expertise in new business and strategy development. He has consistently delivered impressive achievements throughout his career. In addition to being an honors graduate of Texas A&M University, he earned his J.D. at The University of Texas School of Law and his LL.M. (Master of Laws) in International Tax at SMU Dedman School of Law.
